Others Present: Jim Walker

Invoices approved:

6/27/22 National Grid (electricity $61.61), 6/30/22 Heather Billings (reimbursement for cpr cards $14), 7/1/2022 John's Sport Shop (Tetherball set $1,277), 7/1/2022 Sharon Lewis (Little Library reimbursement $149.99), 7/4/2022 Sharon Lewis (reimbursement Home Depot post $10.88), 7/4/2022 Sharon Lewis (reimbursement story walk books $55.93), 7/13/22 Maki (fence stapler, $4.66), 7/13/2022 Jim Walker (reimbursement for water $17.00).

- Susan Fisher attended the meeting to discuss work off program scheduling and ~~her~~ her concerns. The Committee noted that there are more seniors wanting to work at Crocker Pond than there are available positions. Kathleen Brennan stated that she has touched base with all the current work off program staff and everyone appears to be happy with their shifts.
- Graffiti reported on entrance sign and removed on July 2.
- Discussion to include another camera to capture the emergency response callout on building (alarm pulled earlier in the season as apparent prank)
- Septic system pumped (pumping recommended every 4 years)
- Fairy day on 7/17, rental tent to arrive on 7/16. Kathleen to bring cupcakes and punch.
- Kathleen Brennan to meet with Don this week to update signs (rules for the beach and such)
- E-Coli results <1 ppm
- PFAS results pending from June 16 sample.
- Heather Billings to meet with Donny on Conservation Commission regarding review

Next meeting: July 26, 5:30 PM at Crocker Pond
